

Job Title: CONSTRUCTION PROJECT MANAGER (FMS/AMS Specialist)

Position Scope/Objectives:

The TSM&O Construction PM is responsible for managing construction projects that include ITS and signals, to ensure all parameters that are in the contract are installed and adhered to.

Primary Duties and Responsibilities

- Oversee all construction projects that include ITS and signals
  - Ensure contractors adhere to specifications and requirements in project contracts
- Attend construction progress meetings
- Coordinate with contractors and CEIs
- Perform final walkthroughs of projects
- Responsible for coordinating repair of fiber breaks (including contacting entities that broke them)
- File insurance claims for any equipment damages
- Ensure all switches and cyber locks are programmed correctly
- Coordinate with permit department on projects relating to ITS

Detailed Work Efforts

- Review plans
- Coordinate fiber cuts from permittees and construction projects
- Provide documentation to O&M of completed construction projects
- Track ongoing construction projects to understand scope and status of delivery
  - Warranties
  - Documentation
- Handle conflicts that occur during construction
- Advise construction contractor of contract requirements that are novel or frequently overlooked
- Coordinate with local agencies for construction impacts that affect traffic signals and local agency network
- Coordinate the integration of new components into operation
  - Handle SunGuide forms, network configuration, ATMS configuration, FCC Permitting, HMS/SCMS Registration, Firewall Configurations